ANS Correspondence

McCall, D.H.
[Temple, TX]

1919-1925

24

Temple, Texas, Aug 5, 1919.

Mr. B. Max Mehl,
Ft. Worth, Texas.

Dear Sir:

Would a corresponding membership in the American Numismatic Society give me the privilege of purchasing one of the Peace Medals in silver? If so, to whom should I send the money for the Medal?

I enclose stamp for a reply. Please answer as soon as possible.

Yours truly,
D. H. McCall

AUG 5 1919

My dear Mr. Noe;-

Will you please answer the above direct. I am writing Mr. McCall that I am seding you his letter for your reply.

Incidently, this is a sample of quite a number of inquiries I have received regarding the Independence Day medal as well as the silver Peace medal.

Thanking you in advance,

Cordially yours,

March 21, 1911.

D. H. McCall, Esq.,
Oregon, Illinois.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of August 8th has been forwarded to me by Mr. Hall. As only membership in the American Numismatic Society, and of course notice to the editor to be received one of the silver Paper Dollars. If you will permit me to do so, I will very gladly suggest your name at the next meeting of our Council and am sure to find that I receive an unanimous vote for admission. Please notify it at your earliest convenience. You will be interested to know that on account of the increase in membership the price of the volume of Index, to be issued in April,

Trusting that you will be able to give this invitation your favorable consideration, I am

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Temple, Texas.
Nov. 25, 1925.

American Numismatic Society
New York City.

Gentlemen:

Herewith is inclosed my check for amount of $20 for which please send me:

1 Peace medal Silver. (Peace ~~Treaty~~ of Versailles) 10.00
1 Independence Medal Silver 1918 10.00

Please send me a description of the Paul Revere Medal and also Joan of Arc Medal.

Yours truly,
D. A. McCall

12/3/25
2 Medals Issued
Rush

Temple, Texas.
Dec. 9th, 1925.

American Numismatic Society
New York City.

Gentlemen:

Herewith is inclosed check for amount of $1.50 for which please send me: 1 Paul Revere medal in silver.

I received the Peace medal and the Independence medal only yesterday. They are beautiful. I thank you for your promptness in sending them.

Yours truly,
D. H. McCall

Parcel post insured

12/12/25 Rush